

WHAT ARE THE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE TWO PLANS OFFERED BY THE UNIVERSITY

1 Get expert help from your Harvard colleagues

Our experienced member services team is made up of Harvard employees. Being part of the Harvard community allows us to guide you through the health care experience in a way that no other health plan can.

2 Pay lower premiums

HUGHP monthly premiums are lower than other Harvard HMO and POS plans. Check your 2024 Open Enrollment guide to calculate potential savings.

3 Access our extensive physician network

- Adult primary care: Our physician network includes more than 25 primary care physician groups throughout eastern Massachusetts, including Harvard University Health Services (HUHS), Harvard Vanguard, and the other Atrius Medical Groups.
- Pediatric primary care: For child dependents under age 26, our physician network covers all Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts (BCBSMA) HMO Blue pediatricians and family medicine practitioners in Massachusetts, including Mt. Auburn Pediatrics and Atrius Health.
- Specialty care: Our members have access to medical and behavioral health specialists within their own primary care physician groups, as well as a vast network of specialists through the BCBSMA HMO Blue network.

4 Experience unbeatable convenience

When you choose an on-campus primary care physician at HUHS, you also get access to all HUHS specialty care providers—for the ultimate in convenience.

5 Enjoy exclusive discounts

With HUGHP, you enjoy discounts on everything from massages to exercise classes at the Harvard Center for Wellness and Health Promotion.
